

DON'T RISK

2ND RATE SAFETY

SAFE WORK WEEK 2009

This year, Safe Work Australia week comes at a time when the Federal Government is seeking public comment on draft Occupational Health and Safety Laws which will put workers' safety at risk.

Join NSW workers and members of the community to protest this proposed reduction in safety standards and remind politicians of the toll of workplace injury.

RALLY

Wednesday

28 October

12:30pm

Martin Place, Sydney

(between Phillip and Macquarie Streets)

The event will conclude with a ceremony involving the placing of pairs of shoes and workboots representing workers injured on the job.

Add your support to laws that:

- ◆ Give workers a say ◆ Make employers responsible
- ◆ Empower health and safety representatives ◆ Respect the role of unions
- ◆ Enable workers and unions to take court action when employers break safety laws
